

Welcome to the library

Welcome to the UIB Library—your place to study, work and research.

The different UIB libraries house bibliographic and documentary collections for all faculty programmes.

The Minorca and Ibiza-Formentera campuses also have facilities to consult the collection.

Spaces and equipment

The libraries have different spaces and equipment for individual and group work.

There are also specially furnished areas for simply reading or taking a break.

Personal service

Counter staff can provide information on how to use the library and its many services.-

You may also use the online Deman@, la biblioteca respon service by either sending a WhatsApp or filling in the e-mail contact form.

Keep updated about the latest library news over social media.

Opening hours

Please check the website for library opening hours.

Did you know the library also has special opening hours during the summer, Easter and Christmas holidays, as well as in exam periods?

Services

The library's main services include: consulting the collection, borrowing books and equipment, and user accounts. We also run courses on how to find different academic information.

All information about the library and its services can be viewed on our website: biblioteca.uib.cat.
