Context

Anglès II

Anglès II is a compulsory subject within the area of Foreign Languages Applied to Tourism which, in turn, is one of the three components of the Instrumental Module.

As an instrumental subject, Anglès II (i.e. English for Tourism II), is an essential tool for communicating in international professional settings related to the tourism industry.

The learning of English for Tourism in the Degree of Tourism is organised in four levels of proficiency consisting of 3 compulsory subjects (Anglès I, Anglès II, Anglès III) and an elective one (Anglès IV).

Anglès II will deal with the language needed to discuss and work with tourism issues at a basic managerial level. The materials used throughout the course have been designed at Level B2 of the Common European Framework for Languages. The course covers the following topics: tour operation, promotion, e-commerce, man-made tourist attractions and sustainable tourism.

Requirements

Syllabus

Recommended

Students should have obtained a minimum pass grade in the subject Anglès I (20502).

Skills

Specific

- * CE-1 A command of the English language at an intermediate level so that students can develop all language skills and use the specific vocabulary needed to perform effectively in the tourism sector. CE-8 Achieve a command of foreign languages and attain the information technology skills needed to interact in the tourism market, i.e. collecting and analysing data, carrying out statistics and qualitative data analysis, making on-line bookings and using computer applications.

Generic

- * CG-4 Can communicate information, ideas, problems and solutions in tourism related settings to both specialist and non-specialist audiences. CG-5 Have developed those learning skills that are necessary for them to continue to undertake further study with a high degree of autonomy.
- * CG-2 Apply the acquired technical and methodological knowledge to their work in a professional way by integrating the various areas of knowledge covered in their degree in Tourism. Prove that competences have been acquired by being able to engage in tourism related discussions and develop problem-solving techniques.

Basic

- * You may consult the basic competencies students will have to achieve by the end of the degree at the following address: <http://www.uib.eu/study/grau/Basic-Competences-In-Bachelors-Degree-Studies/>

Teaching methodology

In-class work activities (2.4 credits, 60 hours)

Modality	Name	Typ. Grp.	Description	Hours
Theory classes	Theory	Large group (G)	The course methodological approach integrates theory and practice of the language. Theory contents will cover the linguistic, sociolinguistic and pragmatic skills required to interact with the customer in tourism related communicative settings. Theory modules will, therefore, look at the grammar, specific vocabulary and text type features, reading and writing techniques, principles of pronunciation, cross-cultural issues and pragmatic knowledge. Specific vocabulary will be elicited from texts and materials used in class. Concerning English language usage, students will be provided with supplementary materials. Writing techniques will be mainly taught in a deductive way i.e. students will be provided with the theory input needed to carry out the corresponding practical writing activities.	22
Practical classes	Professional skills practice	Medium group 2 (X)	The linguistic, sociolinguistic and pragmatic knowledge acquired through the theory modules will be put into practice throughout a series of task-based activities comprising simulations, pair-work tasks, and debates. All the activities will be related to tourism specific professional settings at a basic managerial stage in which students will get familiar with tour operation procedures and promotion. All activities will be designed to integrate the four skills: reading, writing, speaking and listening; and students will be expected to use the specific vocabulary relevant to every professional setting and communicative function. Project Work: Students will learn the language of presentations together with effective communication skills to	18
